

Join the North County
Pastor's Prayer Team
for a
Time of United Prayer

Fifth Friday

Four times a year, believers from all over New England will unite in prayer at local Fifth Friday gatherings.

Fifth Friday is a modern-day covenant based on Jonathan Edward's quarterly "concerts of prayer." With Fifth Friday, we are renewing an ancient covenant and an important connection to the First Great Awakening.

The next Fifth Friday, led by many local pastors, will be held at:

Place: Elm Street Congregational Church
264 Elm Street
Fitchburg, Ma. 01420

Date: May 29, 2009
Time: 7:00—8:30 PM

For directions, go to www.elmstcc.org

For more information on the prayer gathering, go to www.standnewengland.org

Or

www.newenglandalliance.us/fifthfriday/php

The following Fifth Friday will be July 31st.

Join the North County
Pastor's Prayer Team
for a
Time of United Prayer

Fifth Friday

Four times a year, believers from all over New England will unite in prayer at local Fifth Friday gatherings.

Fifth Friday is a modern-day covenant based on Jonathan Edward's quarterly "concerts of prayer." With Fifth Friday, we are renewing an ancient covenant and an important connection to the First Great Awakening.

The next Fifth Friday, led by many local pastors, will be held at:

Place: Elm Street Congregational Church
264 Elm Street
Fitchburg, Ma. 01420

Date: May 29, 2009
Time: 7:00—8:30 PM

For directions, go to www.elmstcc.org

For more information on the prayer gathering, go to www.standnewengland.org

Or

www.newenglandalliance.us/fifthfriday/php

The following Fifth Friday will be July 31st.